

CHARLES DE CORDIER FINE ARTS becomes noon

Dear art lover,

Eight years after its creation, Charles De Cordier Fine Arts is gaining new momentum with the arrival of Jonathan Dierks as a partner. For more than 13 years, Charles and Jonathan shared a common career path at the publisher TASCHEN. Now, they are spreading their wings together and joining forces under the name noon.

At noon, the sun is at its zenith and shines at its brightest: a source of inspiration, a symbol of creation and illumination.

Non errat superno lumine ductus

One who is led by heavenly light does not wander

In addition to contemporary art and exceptional objects, noon highlights limited editions. noon collaborates with artists such as Guy Slabbinck, Anthony Leenders, Elisia Poelman, and Simon Van Parys.

The next exhibition will be dedicated to Lieven Leurs (Neerpelt, 1975), who takes the landscape as the starting point for his paintings: from September 27 to October 26, 2025.

In addition, noon will participate in the PAN Amsterdam fair (November 1–9*), where a limited edition created by American photographer Sandro Miller with John Malkovich in the lead role will be presented. This will be combined with works by the above-mentioned artists and a selection of limited editions.

Keep following us to stay informed about our activities. We look forward to welcoming you soon!

Charles & Jonathan
www.noon.art

*Limited availability of tickets for the preview on Saturday, November 1.